Hangar Meetings can be fun - - - when it is warm. Our June meeting was scheduled to follow the Young Eagle Flights at Dyersville June 6. Rain postponed the flights but the meeting and BBQ went on as scheduled. Our President called the meeting to order in the warmth of the Pilot Lounge.

What Happened to Global Warming

Minutes from EAA 327 Membership Meeting Dyersville Airport, June 6, 2009

The meeting was preceded by a cookout of burgers and all the fixings, courtesy of hosts Joan and Dave Kramer. Meeting followed in the airport office.

Meeting was called to order by president Larry Mueller at 1:13 pm with 13 members and guests present.

REPORTS:

Secretary: Mike Gaffney read the minutes from May membership, approved as read.

Treasurer: Dennis Schares, not available.

Advertising/Promotion: Harry Styer, nothing to report.

Membership/Retention: Lyle Hefel, not available.

Newsletter: Dave Kramer, nothing to report.

Program Director: No speakers scheduled at this time.

Web Editor: Nancy Mueller, nothing to report.

OLD BUSINESS:

- + Elaine Fitch suggested making a form to record info on new members. After a discussion, it was suggested to use the info forms from the January mall show.
- + Dave Kramer noted the cancellation of the Young Eagle event due to inclement weather and he will try again in 2 weeks.
- + Dave also mentioned that he can host another cookout on August 15. It will be a cookout/fly-in/drive-in meeting and will be held rain or shine. Members are asked to bring a dish to pass. Harry Styer motioned and Bill Fitch 2nd—passed for the chapter to provide the hamburgers.
- + Larry Mueller reported that the Grant County R/C club would like to show their airplanes at our September breakfast. Dave Kramer spoke of the interest in R/C as evidenced by the heavy turnout at the last show in Dyersville. Nancy Mueller motioned and Harry Styer 2nd—passed, to have the Grant County club display at our breakfast.
- + Dave Kramer requested some information on our newest member, Chuck Weber, so Dave can use it in the newsletter.
- + Bill Fitch gave an update on the TSA regulations and said that no changes have taken place at Dubuque Regional, but noted that there has been some implementation elsewhere.

NEW BUSINESS:

- + Larry Mueller questioned the need for a director's meeting this month. After a discussion the meeting was cancelled by a consensus.
- + Elaine Fitch suggested we start initial plans for the Christmas party. Some suggestions were: No restaurant party—Do celebration in November or January. After the discussion it was decided to reintroduce the topic at the July member meeting.
- + Mike Gaffney will check on the possibility of using KDTH radio to announce cancellations of Young Eagle events.
- + Dave Kramer motioned, Nancy Mueller 2nd—meeting adjourned, 2:00 pm.

Young Eagles leave the nest at the Dyersville Airport.

Bill Fitch of EAA 327 poses with the Young Eagles of his flight. Bill returned from the 70 Knotters tour on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning he was refreshed and ready to fly Young Eagles.

The pilots were Bill Fitch, Tim Weineke,, an enrolled student in the U of Dubuque Aviation program, Keith McCarraher and Craig Kramer, all EAA members from Dyersville.

Over 20 youths flew and enjoyed the morning.

Craig Kramer of Dyersville takes time for a photo with some of his Young Eagles.

The pilots and help had a chance to taste the burgers and brats after the flights.

Matt Laskowski, student from the U of D Aviation program shows the young eagles the preflight of an airplane.

To add to the excitement, Steve Wagner flew his ultralite t50 to the event and Fred Lansing flew here in his helicopter.
